Commentaires clientsCommentaires clients les plus utiles0 internautes sur 0 ont trouvé ce commentaire utile. Un de mes livres de chevet préféré !Par TrinityLivre de petit format assez épais avec une couverture rigide.Contient 2 textes par jour, plus ou moins longs, à méditer matin et soir.Extraits:- Our existence is trapped between desire and fear in the context of time. The core of our problem, then, lies in thought, which is the creator of time.- The basic point to understand and accept is that, whatever you do, the consequences are not in your hands.- Freedom is what happens when the arrogant and silly notion that we live our own lives by our own will has fallen off.- Thoughts are bound to arise. The trick is not to get involved but to simply ignore them altogether.

Présentation de l'éditeurSo begins this book of daily meditations drawn from the teachings of Ramesh.Ramesh is known and loved by seekers after Truth throughout the world as a bright, clear light in the spiritual darkness. His words resonate with the raw power of one who genuinely KNOWS of what he speaks and writes.Ramesh teaches that all there is Consciousness. Like his guru, Nisargadatta Maharaj, before him, his sole purpose is to constantly remind us that the sense of separation we feel as individuals is but a thin veil, an illusion. What we truly are is nothing other than the Infinite...God...Christ...Tao...Consciousness.This book is offered as a daily source of inspiration for those who find themselves on the path to fundamental understanding. It contains the most ancient wisdom set down in a new and insightful way by a true Master of the modern age.Présentation de l'éditeurSo begins this book of daily meditations drawn from the teachings of Ramesh.Ramesh is known and loved by seekers after Truth throughout the world as a bright, clear light in the spiritual darkness.
